

Document Type:	Metallurg, Inc.	Classification:	Public
Title:	Diversity and Inclusion Policy	Publication date:	March 31, 2026
Department:	Workforce Reporting
Policy owner	Legal & HR		Page: 1 of 4

DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION POLICY

1 PURPOSE

This Diversity and Inclusion policy (“Policy”) aims to foster a an inclusive culture for all Metallurg, Inc. (“Metallurg”) employees as part of AMG Critical Materials N.V. and its group companies (“AMG”). Additionally, we expect our value chain partners to support and respect Metallurg’s principles in this matter, to promote equal treatment and opportunities.

2 SCOPE AND APPLICABILITY

This policy is applicable to Metallurg. Every Metallurg employee is expected to exhibit conduct that reflects this Policy during work, when representing Metallurg, on or off the work site, as well as in interactions with external business partners and stakeholders.

This Policy is also considered a guideline to all our partners along the value chain to meet Metallurg’s expectations regarding diversity and inclusion.

AMG is firmly committed to full compliance with all applicable federal and state rules and regulations . Where the requirements of such laws prescribe other than as provided herein, such law shall prevail.

3 ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- The Management has adopted this Policy for all employees of Metallurg and is accountable for the implementation of this Policy. It shall review this Policy and the implementation of this Policy regularly.
- Human Resources department of Metallurg is responsible for Policy implementation and any group-wide monitoring and reporting.
- AMG’s Group Corporate Diversity Council has been installed by and reports to the Chairman of the Management Board. The Council provides input on diversity matters for publication in the SER online reporting tool (as per Dutch regulations) that AMG needs to complete and file on an annual basis
- The Council’s role is to focus on creating awareness of diversity throughout AMG, initiate actions to drive diversity, inclusion and non-discrimination within AMG and render ongoing advice to the AMG Management Board and to the management of the AMG group companies to monitor diversity at a variety of levels within the AMG Group. The Council also provides input on diversity matters for publication in the SER online reporting tool (as per Dutch regulations) that AMG needs to complete and file on an annual basis.
- All Metallurg employees are responsible for treating others with dignity and respect at all times. Employees have a personal responsibility to adhere to the principle of diversity, inclusion and equal opportunities as set forth in this Policy.

Document Type:	Metallurg, Inc. Policy	Classification:	Public
Title:	Diversity and Inclusion Policy	Publication date:	August 2024
Department:	Workforce Reporting
Policy owner	Legal & Compliance		Page: 2 of 4

4 DEFINITIONS

- Diversity: Diversity refers to the similarities and differences between individuals on dimensions such as, but not limited to, gender, sexual orientation, age, disability, race, cultural ethnicity as well as lifestyles' choices and background. It includes both visible and invisible characteristics that (may) influence a person's opinion, perspective, attitude and thus their actions.
- Inclusion: Inclusion builds a culture of belonging, where everyone can feel safe and bring up ideas and opinions without the fear of repercussions. It recognizes that employees bring varied skills, knowledge, backgrounds and perspectives to the work environment which leads to a new source of creativity, better decision making, risk management and positive team dynamics.

5 Metallurg Inc.'s COMMITMENT TO RESPECT DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

Our employees are the most valuable asset that we have. We are committed to embracing a culture of diversity and inclusion, without discrimination and harassment. This applies to our way of working, the AMG Values and in all our practices and policies to create an environment where everyone has an equal opportunity to thrive and feels a sense of belonging.

5.1 Respecting diversity and inclusion in Metallurg's own operations

Metallurg is dedicated to fostering a safe and fair work environment through the following commitments.

- Diversity and inclusion: We are committed to embracing diversity and inclusion in all our practices and policies to create an environment where everyone has an opportunity to thrive and feel a sense of belonging. Through engagement, we endeavour to gauge the needs of employees to the extent possible, including all diverse groups.
- Non-discrimination, anti-harassment and equal opportunity: Metallurg has zero-tolerance for any kind of discrimination or harassment based on racial or ethnic origin, colour, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, age, religion, political opinion, national extraction or social origin, or other forms of discrimination. We do not tolerate any form of workplace bullying, intimidation and violence. Metallurg expects that all employment decisions made by local management, including hiring, promotions, compensation and other terms and conditions of employment is bias-free and based on merit, qualifications, and abilities only. Where there is no national regulation on parental leave, we encourage local management to provide appropriate leave for both parents and direct caretakers.

Document Type:	Metallurg Policy	Classification:	Public
Title:	Diversity and Inclusion Policy	Publication date:	August 2024
Department:	Workforce Reporting
Policy owner	Legal & Compliance		Page: 3 of 4

- Equal pay: We are committed to non-discrimination on the grounds of sex with regard to all aspects and conditions of remuneration for the same work or for work of equal value and for work rated as equivalent.
- Training and skills development: We train, develop and promote on the basis of merit, qualifications, and ability and encourage all employees and applicants objectively.
- Communication: Communication of this Policy to all employees during onboarding and regular training will be facilitated. Metallurg’s communication to employees shall be clear and available in local languages. Significant Policy updates are communicated through suitable channels.
- Stakeholders: Metallurg encourages its partners along its value chain to apply the principles of this Policy.

6 MONITORING AND GRIEVANCES

We expect all employees to comply with this Policy. If any employee is found to have exhibited inappropriate conduct or behavior in breach of this Policy, Metallurg reserves the right to take action, in particular, but not conclusively to take disciplinary actions including dismissal.

Employees who believe they have been subjected to any kind of behavior or acts that conflict with this Policy should seek assistance from a supervisor or upper management. Employees may also report concerns following our Speak Up & Reporting Policy published on AMG Critical Materials N.V.’s website under “corporate governance”. Confidentiality, non-retaliation, and remedy will be maintained in accordance.

Comments from Metallurg’s own workforce of workers employed in it’s value chain regarding this Policy are highly welcomed and can be addressed through AMGs websites and contact information.

AMG tracks and reports relevant metrics in line with the disclosures required under the EU Corporate Sustainability Reporting Directive (“CSRD”).

In addition, AMG reports annually in the SER (The Social and Economic Council of the Netherlands) online portal on the progress with its diversity targets in line with legislation in the Netherlands. The information reported is publicly available.

7 TRAINING

Metallurg, or its affiliates, periodically provides training to relevant employees (through training on AMG’s Code of Business Conduct), and regularly reviews this Policy to ensure compliance with all applicable laws and regulations. Training will take place in the following manner:

- All new employees take the AMG Code of Business Conduct online training course.

Document Type:	Metallurg Policy	Classification:	Public
Title:	Diversity and Inclusion Policy	Publication date:	August 2024
Department:	Workforce Reporting
Policy owner	Legal & Compliance		Page: 4 of 4

- All new employees are being inducted by the local compliance officer once they start employment and are being advised about the application, amongst other policies, of the AMG Code of Business Conduct, Speak Up & Reporting Policy and this Policy.
- All employees are trained regularly, at least every three years, in the AMG Code of Business Conduct, either online or by way of onsite meetings. Designated groups of employees may receive regular specific training on the matters referred to in this Policy.

8 OTHER RELATED DOCUMENTS

Other AMG policies and AMG documents that are related to the topic of this Metallurg Policy are, amongst others:

- AMG Speak Up & Reporting Policy
- AMG Human Rights Policy
- AMG Code of Business Conduct
- AMG Supplier Code of Conduct
